WINDSOR.

By Appointment.

Henry VIII Gateway, Windsor Castle, is the chief entrance to the lower ward. It still retains several of its original characteristics in spite of the many repairs which have taken place since it was erected in 1510. It was beneath this gateway Henry VIII met and welcomed Anne Boleyn to Windsor, a few days before making her his queen.

Many thanks for postcard
I had one from your brother W. Mother sends her love & says she is still undecided as to going to Ireland. She will write & tell you all
when she decides.
Dad would like to know how the Watering Place is going on.
Yours A. L. M.
